1. The Society shall be called the Blackpool & Fylde Radio Controlled Model Society, hereafter called “The Society” and will be affiliated to the British Model Flying Association.
2. The club’s principal aim shall be the promotion of safe and responsible model aircraft flying. The Club caters for all radio-controlled model types including fixed wing, helicopters and multi-copters with the exception of those models operated through First Person View. Models which operate through a pre-programmed 'computer' controlled flight are also excluded.
3. The Society will endeavour to improve its flying facilities by way of raising funds to pay for continuous improvement of the flying site, also to improve family friendly facilities. These funds will be held in a committee agreed bank or building society account and any interest gained will be added to the funds for the above use. There must be at least two agreed signatures to draw on these funds. Monies paid by the Treasurer by Bank transfer shall be agreed with the committee.
4. The officers of the Society shall consist of:

Up to a maximum of 10 committee members, as a minimum, consisting of:

Chairman, Vice Chairman, Hon Secretary, Hon Treasurer, Membership Secretary.

One of these officers shall be elected as “Safety Officer”. This role would normally be performed by the most suitability qualified officer to carry out the task.

The Society may also select a News Letter Editor.

5. MEMBERSHIP

- a. Membership shall be open to all members of the public. The Committee has the right to refuse membership to new applicants. New members will be required to serve an initial probationary period of 12 months. During this time, they will not be eligible to serve on the Committee and may have their membership terminated at the discretion of the Committee.
- b. Membership will be at the discretion of the committee and shall become effective upon receipt and acceptance of the appropriate subscription.
- c. The membership numbers may be limited at the discretion of the Committee.
- d. A junior member shall become a senior on reaching 18 years of age
- e. A membership card will be issued to each member
- f. A copy of the constitution/club and flying field rules shall be displayed on the club notice board.
- g. Subscriptions are due on or before the 1st day of January. Membership then runs till 31st December. Members paying by 31st January will be entitled to a deduction for that year agreed at the previous AGM. Any membership renewed after this date will be charged at the full club fee.

Members may only fly after paying the membership fee.

- h. Spouses and partners of senior members will automatically become social members of the club. Social members will have no flying privileges or voting rights at the AGM.

- i. All members, without exception, must comply with all club rules. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action by the Club which may lead to dismissal.

6. INSURANCE

All members who intend to fly models, must be appropriately insured by the BMFA insurance.

7. CLUB SUBSCRIPTION

The annual Club subscription will be recommended by the committee, proposed by the Treasurer at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) and will be voted on by the membership where changes are proposed.

8. RULES, DISCIPLINE AND SAFETY

- a. Additions and amendments to 'Flying Field Rules' are at the discretion of the committee.
- b. Any complaint concerning any member must be made in writing and signed by the complainant(s). The written complaint must then be forwarded to the Secretary so that the matter can be addressed at the next Committee meeting.
- c. Where an allegation of misconduct is made against a member, the member may be suspended from all club activities while an investigation is carried out.
- d. The Committee may impose a suspension from club activities including attendance at the club flying site. The period should not exceed 28 days upon any member in the event of misconduct. Any suspension must be accompanied by a verbal and/or written warning as deemed appropriate.

- e. The Committee may consider removal of membership where conduct on the field or elsewhere is considered to be prejudicial to the club. Dismissal will be in accordance with the following procedure in order to comply with the laws of natural justice:
- i. The member is to be given a verbal warning by an authorised Committee Member in which the member is made aware of his/her misdemeanour and what he/she is reasonably required to do to make amends.
 - ii. If the member does not respond, he/she is to be given a written warning by an authorised Committee Member to advise the member of his/her misdemeanour and what he is reasonably required to do to make amends.
 - iii. If the member still fails to respond, the Committee should invite him in writing to meet with them at a previously agreed date and time to discuss the situation advising they are considering withdrawal of his/her membership.
 - iv. If the member still fails to respond to reasoning or fails to attend without reasonable cause, the Committee can advise the member in writing that his/her membership is withdrawn, stating the reasons why this decision was reached.
 - v. When the member is advised of withdrawal of his/her membership, the member must be given the right of appeal.
 - vi. This appeal must be received in writing by the committee within 21 days. If the member opts to appeal, this will be to the Club membership at an EGM which the Committee would call on the member's behalf at a previously agreed date and time.
 - vii. The motion to uphold the membership withdrawal, or reverse it, must be in accordance with the voting procedures set out in the Club Constitution.

9. MISCONDUCT

In the event of gross misconduct, immediate dismissal without warnings may be considered but the member must still be accorded his rights to present his case to the Committee and be given a right of appeal in accordance with subparagraphs c, d and e above.

In the event of dismissal the Committee will arrange for the member's current residual membership fee (excluding BMFA subscription) to be reimbursed.
